After being approved, the department will only admit the number of credits that is originally listed on our required courses. If the specially approved same-name course is a two-semester course, while the original required course is single-semester one, students should still complete the course for two semesters, but the department will only admit the first semester as required credits and the second semester will be recognized as selective credits of other department.
3. With the exception of Area Studies, students from other departments are not admitted to the required courses offered by this department. This restriction does not apply to the students with Double Major and (or) Minors of this Department.
